GLOBELINK OPENS NEW OFFICE IN NICARAGUA

We are pleased to announce the establishment of our new office in Nicaragua, Globelink Aeroceano De Nicaragua S.A! With this new office, we will strengthen our presence and services in the Central America region. This is part of our constant network expansion plan to serve our customers better.

Corinto port, 156KM away from Managua City, north-western of Nicaragua, is the country's principal port on the Pacific Ocean. Corinto is located in sheltered Corinto Bay, which lies at the south-eastern end of low-lying Aserradores (Punta Icacó) Island, connected by bridges with the mainland. It is the main port of entry for passengers and cargo bound for Nicaragua, and it handles most of the country's imports & exports. It has its own container terminal and is able to manage a wide variety of cargo.

Details of our new office is as follows:
